

"GROWING UP DEFALCO" IN THE 70'S WAS SUCH A GREAT EXPERIENCE, ALMOST LIKE A SITCOM, ONLY IT WAS REAL LIFE, AND I WAS ONE OF THE CHARACTERS...

It started with a Suzy Homemaker oven at 6 years old, just to be like Mom.
They cooked side by side years later in their 2 restaurants...

Chef Annie Payton reflects on the many fond memories she and her mom, Connie, shared for decades. Through laughter, tears, hard work, and perseverance, these 2 ladies won the hearts of many along the way, always focusing on family, friends, food, and fun. This book is their recipes, and stories, adding a bit of extra zest to each dish, as you make your own memories around the dinner table.
